

Wilbert F. Coleman Memorial Scholarship

Wilbert F. Coleman was a 1950 graduate of Hackensack High School, a member of the National Guard, the first African-American narcotics police officer in Hackensack, Lt. of Detectives at the Bergen County Prosecutor's Office and an upstanding citizen.

Over the course of his life, Mr. Coleman used his intelligence, kindness and sheer determination to overcome many obstacles he faced. He was known throughout the community for his generosity, concern for fellow man and doing his bit part to make the community a better place.

The recipients of the Wilbert F. Coleman Memorial Scholarship will be selected for this award based on character, contributions to the community and recommendations by school and community officials.
