IV. Public Comments

Public participation shall be governed by the following rules: 1) If in person, a participant must sign the “sign-in” sheet and be recognized by the presiding officer and must preface comments by an announcement of his/her name, municipality of residence, and group affiliation, if applicable; 2) Each statement made by a participant shall be limited to three (3) minutes duration during the public session; 3) All statements, questions, or inquiries shall be directed to the presiding officer and any questions or inquiries directed by a participant to another Board member shall be redirected to the presiding officer who shall determine if such statement, question, or inquiry shall be addressed by the presiding officer on behalf of the Board or by the individual Board member; and 4) All Board and/or Superintendent responses to questions or inquiries shall be held until the end of public participation.

- Appreciation for Donna Petrin-Wall for the support in the unfortunate transfer room Fairmount 1st grade teacher to ECDC preschool teacher
- Frustration and anger over the unexpected transfer from ECDC to Fairmount in such a short amount of time

- More understandable if transfers were done mid year or in September not a month before school ends.

Unnecessary stress on students and staff

- Salary for Part-time paraprofessionals in Hackensack. Fair and competitive salary. Other districts pay their paraprofessionals much more per hour.

- Two request for paraeducators: more pay and full time status
- Concern regarding the transfer less than 30 days for the school year to end- “make it make sense”
- ECDC- is it a program or school? How can a principal be hired for a program?
- Custodian substitutes working less hours to cover full time custodians
- Trustees comments in the last meeting regarding test scores, upsetting as data comparing apples to oranges
- Mr. Boateng deserves the recognition and award, make sure students come first
- Why is the district hiring Registered Behavioral Technicians when the district has paraprofessionals that can do the work of RBTC?

- Have had RBT not show up to work, come in when they want to.
- Communication is based not only on words but body language, how it is said, context and outcomes, transparency and understanding perspectives.

- Think about what you are doing as a community leader.
- Hope Board takes a more active interest in listening to those who directly impact students
- Conflicts between future board meetings and school events, open door policy is not possible with these conflicts

- When the community expressed Mondays were the better choice for board meetings it went unnoticed
- Administration cannot be the only solution for the middle school
- 6 Grade camp- 57th year of the camp
- Told the board meetings is the place to address concerns but things are not addressed
- Clarify chain of command
- Lack of communication between board, staff, community
- Board meetings need to return to Monday and move into different parts of the district
- Comments made by board to public comments are at times combative
- Board members are also combative with each other, same respect that is expected needs to be given
- 19 Principals in one school in 24 years- two years is not enough time to do the work that is needed
- Can't compare schools with Hackensack, not as diverse
